

Security for Credit

In life, you can count on everything.
Fortunately, you can also count on us.

Enjoy the good feeling of security.
With Credit Life, a company of the RheinLand insurance group, you can trust a partner that will protect its customers against payment default risks with payment protection insurance.

Now you can plan your future responsibly and with confidence.

Added Value³

→ More security

→ More profit

You can think about security when it's too late.
Or think ahead.

With our innovative insurance products, we will always be there for your customers when regular payment obligations can no longer be met, either temporarily or on a permanent basis.

You can rely on the fact that unforeseen events will not have a negative impact on your business.

→ More future

Lasting success is no secret.
There are good reasons for it.

The road to success is determined by value-creating synergies between your financial products and our individually tailored security solutions. Together with you, we develop highly efficient products that create added value.

And with which you will secure the future of your company.

Partnership³ → More service → More sales success

Individual solutions are standard for us.

Our insurance services are based on certified processes. Despite the high degree of automation, all insurance products can be tailored to individual requirements and processes.

Thanks to our monitoring system, you can control all business processes at any time.

→ More customer satisfaction

We are available for you, so that you can be available for your customers.

Even the best product cannot sell itself. That is why we will support your sales through argumentative training, expert support and the production of customer-friendly sales documents.

If requested, we will increase your sales performance using special incentive-based and motivational programs.
