

Credit Life LEASE

Security for Credit

Credit Life LEASE

This product line removes anxieties by protecting lease instalments. It means you can plan for any unforeseen circumstances during the lifetime of the lease with no risk to the agreed repayment schedule.

Credit Life LEASE is specially designed for leases and includes the following options for payment protection for employees, public service workers and the self-employed:

Life cover

- Protects the lessee and his/her family in the event of his/her death, incapacity to work / physical debilitation or unemployment

Income protection

- Protects the lessee in the event of incapacity to work/physical debilitation or unemployment

Each individual product can be tailored to the lessor's circumstances and can include additional services. Credit Life LEASE payment protection insurance offers Credit Life partners these special advantages:

- no deterioration in customer relationships if the lessee gets into difficulties
- improved customer profitability
- inexpensive monthly contributions for the lessee

If you are already a successful finance provider, our insurance products and services will add to that success!
